THE E. L. CONVENTION

Vida Grieg Third Vice President of Lansing District

The Alma delegation to the Lansing District Epworth League convention held at Grand Lodge the last of the week returned Monday and reported one of the most enthusiastic and spiritual conventions ever held in the district. The program was carried out as printed in last week's record, with the exception of the address by Prof. Green of Albion college, whose place was filled by Prof. Demmon, also of Albion.

Saturday evening a big banquet was held and Sunday Rev. Dan Brummitt of Chicago, editor of the Epworth Herald, preached at both the morning and evening services. Rev. C. E. Pollock of Grand Lodge, was elected president of the district; Mrs. Jennie E. McNeil, of Lansing, secretary, and Miss Lulu Blackman of Wheeler, junior superintendent. Miss Vida Grieg of this city is the newly elected third vice-president. Over a hundred delegates were in attendance, those from Alma including Rev and Mrs. T. G. R. Brownlow, Harold Redman, and the Misses Grace Haner, Clara Shafer and Vida Grieg.

FOR COUNTY CLERK

CALVIN D. WILES

As a Republican I will appreciate your vote for nomination for County Clerk at the August Primaries. I am at present supervisor of New Haven township, to which position I was reelected this year by a good majority. If nominated and elected I will give the office my individual attention and try in every way to serve the people.

CALVIN D. WILES, adv. 1837-12 New Haven Township.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors and Fraternal orders for their beautiful flowers and many acts of kindness in our recent great bereavement. Also the Wright quartette for their music.

MRS. ROY WHITMAN AND CHILDREN.

YOUR HAIR NEEDS PARISIAN SAGE

The first application removes dandruff, stops itching scalp, cleanses the hair, takes away the dryness and brittleness, increases the beauty of the hair, making it wavy and lustrous.

Everyone needs Parisian Sage.

CHAS. RHODES

Tug of War

The Freshman Class of the college have challenged the Sophomores to a Tug of War across Pine River, Monday afternoon at 4:15. Large yellow posters of acceptance put up by the Sophomores are much in evidence around the campus and city. "Ye Foolish, Foppish, Finicky Flunky, Frantic, Fastidious Fools of 1917" are the glaring headlines and following those are some of the causes for the feeling of contempt which is held by the higher for the lower class and also remedies of various kinds for all sorts of injuries are advertised by leading merchants as well as warning "Ivory-Domed Yearlings make funeral arrangements with Vern Wright!" An added bulletin tells of the excitement in St. Louis for fear that when the Frosh are dragged through the Pine that the waters will become so polluted and insanitary that the lives of their citizens will be endangered.

Entertained Alma Ladies

The members of the college faculty residing in Wright Hall gave an informal tea Wednesday to their friends in the city. The large reception room of the dormitory, where the guests were entertained, was prettily decorated with lilacs and tulips and forty women of Alma enjoyed the hospitality of the Misses Haefliger, Robinson, Roberts, Cornwall, Ward, and Bjorn.

Will Dedicate "Castle Hall"

The Knights of Pythias, Fitz James Lodge No. 95 have issued invitations to the dedication of "Castle Hall," the lodge room. Following the fire in the Pollasky Block the rooms were refurnished and refurnished and now present a very attractive appearance. The dedication will be held Monday evening and an interesting program has been prepared for the occasion.
